

Toll-Free Plan for Dansville and Cohocton Survey Towns on Proposal

Cohocton and Dansville customers of Rochester Telephone will begin voting this week on whether or not to want toll-free calling to each other.

Cohocton residents currently can call other customers in the Cohocton, Atlanta, and Wayland exchanges without a long distance charge. Adding Dansville would allow Cohocton customers to call toll-free another 4,000 customers in the 335 exchange.

If they approve the plan, basic monthly service rates for Cohocton customers would be increased 42 cents for individual line service and 36 cents for four-party line service. An Extended Area Service Surcharge of $1.20 would be added to monthly charges for each flat-rate residence line. There would be no change in business rates.

Dansville residents currently can call other customers in the Dansville, Canaseraga, Springwater and Wayland exchanges toll-free. Adding Cohocton would allow Dansville people to call an additional 600 customers in the 384 exchange.

If they approve the plan, the Extended Area Service Surcharge of $1.20 would be added to the monthly service charges for each Dansville customer who has a flat-rate residence line.

These surveys are being conducted in accordance with a State Public Service Commission directive that established guidelines for the potential expansion of toll-free calling between non-adjacent exchanges. At least 60 percent of all customers must vote in favor of the expansion.

If approved, the expansion plans would not be implemented until mid-1988.

Question Box

Q. I found an old bill for doctor's services that I had paid more than a year ago, but I forgot to submit it to my Medicare carrier for payment. Is it too late now for me to send in a claim for this bill?

A. THE LOVE OF GOD PROVIDES US
WITH THE BLAZE OF AUTUMN

With the heat of the summer beginning to wane
And the signs of the year growing old,
Comes a season providing the frost and the rain
While the leaves change to scarlet and gold,
For a moment of glory before they turn brown
And descend to the earth everywhere,
As a cold gust of wind sends them fluttering down
Where the bonfire smoke fills the air.
It's a time for the harvest of orchard and field,
While the earth's brilliant colors appear;
Then the love of the Lord is so brightly revealed
When the season of autumn is here.
—Gloria Nowak
